TERRITORIAL TOPICS

AFTER THE GOLDEN AS IN OLDEN DAYS.

"They come! They come! The Greeks! The Greeks!" Thus bleated some 500 Angora goats of Judge Pendleton of San Juan county, one night last week, at an hour when honest folks are asleep. The herder was awakened by the noise and soon seeing two men chasing the goats, fired several shots into the air. The cut-throats are supposed to be disciples of Demosthenes.

FOR MANY YEARS THEY LIVED IN NEW MEXICO.

S. S. Mendonhall and wife, or Bartlesville, I. T., were at Roswell, says the Record, combining business with pleasure. They attended the old settlers' picnic, there, having been residents for twenty-six years. They were guests of their daughter, Mrs. W. S. Praeger. A considerable portion of the twenty-six years were spent in Las Vegas, where Mr. Mendonhall was engaged in the livery business.

MAN WHO IS OF A FINE PUBLIC SPIRIT.

The Durango Herald is authority for the statement that S. R. Blake of Farmington has given the new college, which was recently secured for that place, ten acres of his orchard, which was the factor that secured the institution. Besides the ten acres Mr. Blake has given the college every third lot on three sides of the college site. And then to further help the college, he offered to give every other one of the remaining lots to any one who will build a house at a cost of not less than $500, provided the party he donates the lot to will give the college $100. The lots offered are 50x100 feet, and are covered with bearing fruit trees. The college grounds are at the southwest edge of town. Mr. Blake is trying to interest some of the Durango people in the matter.

AZTEC FAIR IS TO OPEN TOMORROW MORNING.

According to the Index, the San Juan county fair, which begins tomorrow, will continue three days. During the whole time the noble red braves and squaws will be camped on the fair grounds and they will have their own contests and pastimes, in addition to the regular program. All their tomahawks, scalp knives and whetstones will be confiscated upon their arrival in town, and in their hideous warpaint and blood curdling yells, they will be harmless. The most timid need not be afraid.

QUITS BARSTOW FOR DEATH VALLEY MINE

WALTER SCOTT, WITH MULE TRAIN OF SUPPLIES AND SEVERAL GUARDS, DEFIES ANY ONE TO FOLLOW HIM.

After a busy period covering many weeks of packing and filling—Walter Scott of Death Valley, is once more on the desert en route to his famous mine, says a dispatch from Barstow, dated September 16.

It speaks well for the cowboy Croesus that after all the talk that has been circulated about this mine, the public is as much in the dark as ever. Scotty is an extemporaneous talker—up to a certain point. Just when he seems to be about to give up some really interesting information regarding the source of his wealth, Scotty corks up, and from that time on a clam would be a garrulous and loose-tongued bird beside the man who rode the Coyote special.

But he has departed from Barstow en route for the desert, and with him went four strong men with long-range guns. It was pointed out to Scotty that various sure-shooting sharks were preparing to follow him at a safe distance and trail him to the finish. "Is that so?" asked Scotty, interested at once. "How many times do you suppose I have made this trip? How many times have men tried to follow me? How many of them have succeeded? Figure the dope, son; figure the dope. I reckon this outfit I've got is at least as good as 1 to 10 against these pikers around here. Pike my pack train! Ain't she sure of the goods? Nothing but the best goods! Load them mules over! Every one of them fine and fit as a fiddle, and they can bump along all day and all night, too. If necessary, all I've got to say that if any of these bums try to follow me they'll surely know they've been traveling some before I'm done with 'em. The desert! Man, I knew every foot of it! I've been over it too often. If these fellows try to tack onto this caravan

I'll make 'em hoof it to keep in sight of my smoke!"

"And suppose they try to jump us? What do you think I've got these guys with the long-range rifles for? A rifle like that costs a heap of money, and if it comes to a fight—well, and the 'Point of the Desert' patted a 45-90 cannon affectionately, "there'll be doings, that's all."

"No, there ain't any truth in all this talk about me shooting all of them prospectors out on the desert. If you listen long enough you'll hear that I am everything, from a Wells Fargo robber to a regular, up to date Bluebeard. Don't believe all you hear. All I claim for myself is that I'm plenty able to protect my game any way she breaks. I'm the most peaceable guy that ever toted a gun. I don't go out looking for grief, but if anybody thinks I'll run from trouble, let 'em try me."

And the Scott caravan is certainly equipped for war. Three quiet looking cowpunchers—the type of man who never shoots unless he has to, and seldom shoots in vain—form the bodyguard. Scott himself, is an expert with either rifle or revolver, and it is his pride to clip silver dollars in the air with his new automatic pistol, which shoots twelve times inside of five seconds.

This is the first time that Scott ever took an escort with him. It really proves that he believes there will be an effort made to trap him on this trip to the mine.

"Some clumsy sucker shot a mule from under me the last time I came in," said Scott, resentfully. "Maybe he was trying to get me, but he certainly was a cussed poor shot. But he done for the mule, though, and that mule was easy worth a hundred and a quarter. If the same guy does any shooting this time he'll have to get the whole bunch of us, 'fey fellows!"

And so, near sundown, Scotty and his caravan tracked out of Barstow, and pointed their noses to the desert. Will there be a fight before Scotty reaches the famous Funeral range of mountains?

Syndicate Pays Bills.

A San Francisco dispatch says: It is asserted here on inside authority that Walter Scott has no mine, never did have a mine and is not likely to. The statement is made that he is in the pay of a syndicate of Los Angeles mine promoters, who have for their sole purpose the constant agitation of bonanza stories which will keep the mining stock market excited.

It is asserted that this party of operators keeps Scott supplied with money, and on the strength of the advertising they got for their properties through him, they profit many times more than the few thousand they stake him to.

the many so-called birth medicines, and most remedies for women in the treatment of her delicate organs, contain more or less opium, morphine and strychnine?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not take internally any medicine for the pain accompanying pregnancy?

Do You Know that Mother's Friend is applied externally?

Do You Know that Mother's Friend is a celebrated prescription, and that it has been in use over forty years, and that each bottle of the genuine bears the name of The Bradford Regulator Co.?

Do You Know that when you use this remedy during the period of gestation, that you will be free of pain and bear healthy, hearty and clever children?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts. Of druggists at $1.00. Don't be persuaded to try a substitute. Our little book "Motherhood," free. THE BRADFORD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

SOMETHING NEW

AT THE LAS VEGAS FAIR AND FESTIVAL.

Novelty is what we all want. Many persons spend thousands of dollars every year searching for something new. Perhaps you're one of those who desire newness. Take our word for it, between September 26 and 29, you'll find it near home.

You won't have to spend much money nor go very far to see it, either. Go to the Las Vegas fair and festival. One and one-half cents per mile each way is all it will cost. Just $4 from Albuquerque to Las Vegas and return.

See the Santa Fe agent at once for particulars.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided, by meeting with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennettville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." All druggists sell and guarantee them, at 50 cents a bottle.

MASONIC GRAND LODGE MEETS HERE IN OCTOBER

The various degrees of the Masonic fraternity of New Mexico will hold regular annual meeting in this city October 16 to 21. The annual meeting of the grand chapter of the Eastern Star will also meet here immediately following the meetings of the Masons.

The annual session this year promises to be more largely attended than any previous session. All of the railroads have made especially low rates. Secretary A. A. Koon, who is secretary of the New Mexico grand lodge, of the grand commandery and grand chapter, is now sending out notices of the special railroad rates offered for the meeting, and inviting all members to visit Albuquerque on the dates above mentioned.

It's folly to suffer from that horrid plague of the night, itching piles. Doan's Ointment cures quickly and permanently. At any drug store, 50 cents.

Attacked by a Mob.

and beaten, in a labor riot, until covered with sores, a Chicago street conductor applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and was soon sound and well. "I use it in my family," writes G. J. Welch, of Tekonsha, Mich., "and find it perfect." Simply great for cuts and burns. Only 25 cents at all druggists.

Can You Eat? J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Christiana, Texas, says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was to keep me from starving. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefited me, and after taking four bottles, I am restored to my usual strength, wealth and health." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures. Sold by all druggists.

Dr. Otto G. Beber left on a business trip for Gallup. During his absence, Dr. W. E. Bauer will be in charge of his office.

Always Successful. When indigestion becomes chronic it is dangerous. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will cure indigestion, and all trouble resulting therefrom, thus preventing catarrh of the stomach. Dr. Newbrough, of League, W. Va., says: "To those suffering from indigestion or sour stomach I would say that there is no better remedy than Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have prescribed it for a number of patients with good success." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by all druggists.
